

The History Rotation

A side-by-side comparison between Charlotte Mason and A Mind in the Light

Year	Charlotte Mason	A Mind in the Light
1	National/English History	World History
2	National/English History	World History
3	National/English History	World History
4	National/English History French History (SC)	16-18th Century History, emphasis American
5	National/English History French History (SC) Ancient History	19th Century History, emphasis American Ancient History
6	National/English History French or World History (SC) Ancient History	20th Century History Ancient History
7	National/English History French or World History (SC) Ancient History	World History-Medieval Ancient History
8	National/English History French or World History (SC) Ancient History	World History-Renaissance and Reformation Ancient History
9	National/English History World History Ancient History	World History-Early Modern Ancient History
10	National/English History World History Ancient History	American History Ancient History
11	National/English History World History Ancient History	World History-Modern Ancient History
12	National/English History World History Ancient History	Specialized Study

SC=Studied Contemporaneously